EVERYONE IS DIFFERENT | EVERYONE BELONGS

My Home, My Life! season one introduced us to 21 amazing children who invited us into their homes to share a snapshot of their lives and families from their own unique perspectives.

We met kids from a variety of economic backgrounds, home types and family units, making every episode as special as the child presenting it. Through watching these profiles, our audience learned that not only is a family a family, no matter what they look like, but that even with our differences we all have a place we belong.

Season two picks up where season one left off, introducing 20 all new engaging children and their unique stories. Packed with real family moments, honest feelings and lots of giggles along the way.
