EVERYONE IS DIFFERENT | EVERYONE BELONGS

My Home, My Life! invites us into the homes of children from diverse backgrounds to share a snapshot of their lives and families. We meet kids from a variety of home types, family units and economic backgrounds, making every episode as special as the child presenting it. Through every child's unique perspective, our audience learns that despite our differences, we all have a place we belong. Sharing real families, honest feelings and lots of giggles along the way, My Home, My Life! welcomes everyone to experience and learn about the lives of children and families around us.
